What does this index disclose at the moment as the topic of widest the moment as the topic of widest public interest in the United States? Panama Canal tolis? Mexico? Antitrust legislation? None of these things. Apparently the liquor traffic and nation-yide probibition is the subject of widest interest. Take up any copy of the Record at random, say, Tuesday of this week. On that day thirty-six memorials and petitions were presented, and of that number twenty-one remonstrated against or favored the adoption of a constitutional amendment to prohibit the manufacture, sale and importation of intoxicating beverages. They came from various parts of the country.
